Robbery by a Boy - His Subsequent Adventures and Those of His Companion

On the 12th of December last, Joseph Packard, aged 17 years, whose parents reside in Pacific street, Brooklyn, in the employ of John Monroe & Co., brokers, No. 8 Wall street, was sent to the Bank of Commerce with $10,000 in gold checks to deposit. He came back soon after with the bank book, on which appeared an entry, purporting to show that he had deposited the checks in the bank. He then left the office. On the 15th the bank was visited by one of the firm, and the bank book being shown, the receiving teller at once pronounced the entry acknowledging the receipt to be a forgery. Information of the affair was then | cents and stamped envelope addressed to yoursent to Police Headquarters, and Detectives Niven and Vaughan were detailed to hunt up the case. The detectives learned that Packard had taken with him a companion named Isaac Clark, aged 19 years, residing in Jane street, and had gone to Montreal. Chief of Police Lamothe of the last named place was telegraphed to, and visited the hotel where the boys were stopping, but they were out. He seized their trunks, and waited for the boys to return, but some person connected with the hotel informed them that the Chief of Police | soft ruby complexion of almost marble smooththe boys left town. The trunks on being peared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the nothing but clothing, the checks being secreted | that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and coning to Assumption, took the cars there, and ran down to Portland, Maine, arriving there January 11 and sailing from there in the steamship Hibernia on the 13th. Arrived in herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy Liverpool, the boys commenced a fast life, in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleanchecks at the office of Messrs. While intoxicated one night at Christy's Minstrels, in Liverpool, they had stolen from them the $6,000 in gold checks which remained unchanged; they had still remaining, however, nearly $1,000, a portion of that remaining of the amount first changed by them. Had it not been for this mishap, it was their intention to have visited the Exposition at Paris, but concluding that their money would not last long enough to enable them to do this, the boys crossed to Havre, and on February 12 sailed from that port in the steamship Celia for this port. Arrived here, instead of visiting their relatives, the boys at once went to Baltimore, Maryland .-Here they remained until the money was spent, when they hired themselves as laborers, this decidedly hard work, they became dis-gusted at length, and on Monday last the firm of Monroe & Co. received a letter from Packard stating where he was, and asking one of them to come on and bring himself and companion back. One of the firm at once proceeded there, and yesterday the boys were brought on to this city, in charge of Detective Pontier of the Baltimore force. They were locked up at Police Headquarters, and to-day will be taken before Justice Hogan at the Toombs. Packard is very communicative.— He states that he and Clark had had this

FREIGHT GORGE AT BRISTOL .- We understand that Theavy freight "gorge" exists at Bristol, there being now 110 car loads of freight for points West, which the East Tennessee railroad has suffered to accumulate at that point. Only 69 of these loads belong to the Air line proper, the remainder being composed of railroad iron which was brought up on the canal and shipped from this place over the Virginia & Tennessee road. This "gorge" is increasing daily, about forty loads having been sent up on the Virginia & Tennessee road yes-Berday. - Lynchburg News.

A SAD PICTURE.—Ex Governor Henry S. Foot drew the following sombre sketch of himself in a late speech in St. Louis: "A poor, unpardoned rebel, humbled in spirit, and paralyzed in all my energies, disfranchised, reviled and disregarded by housands who once professed to love and to respect me, a forlorn Pariah in my native land."

STROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED At the wonderful revelations made by the Great Astrologist MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, entastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue, and in what you will be most successful, causes speely marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the male fic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportu-nity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned.
